Welcoming, Worshipping, Healing, Serving

Thoughts from Pastor Mark

In December's article I shared with you a moment that I felt the Holy Spirit poke me in my soul reminding me that She is still here among us and calling us into this new life. In January's article, I laid out a vision for our congregation to Grow in four specific ways:

1. Grow the numbers of members present (either in-person or online)
2. Grow (as in evolve or Reform) our governance documents to become more flexible and reflective of the size we have become
3. Grow the numbers of our congregation overall, and
4. Grow (as in enrich, deepen or mature) our own individual faith in Christ.

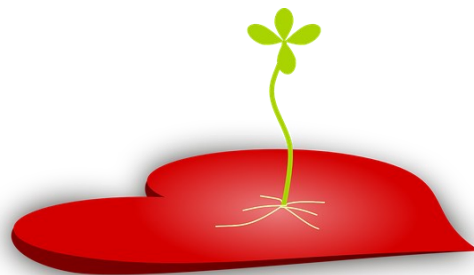

St. John's is a beautiful community of faith, and I truly want you to be so proud of who you are that you share your church with others. May we be discovered by many, and may the inclusive love of Jesus NEVER be privatized. We have received a message of divine and holy love that is not only a word people are desperately needing to be reminded of, but it is also contrary to the narrative of the Christian Nationalism which seems to get all the press. So this month, when we have a secular holiday to celebrate love in Valentines Day, let's up the ante and celebrate Christ's love and intentionally invite a friend, co-worker, neighbor, anyone(!) to come and experience God's love through St. John's Lutheran Church. Invite them to come to our worship service, or join the livestream, or participate in our ministry to the world, or maybe to the Shrove Tuesday fellowship event. Your choice.

The pages that follow in this issue of the Messenger are filled with events and opportunities to which you might like to invite your friends. I hope you do.

As always, thank you for all you do and all that you give so that St. John's is able to serve the community. I've heard their gratitude so I am passing it along to you.

Thank you!

Pastor Mark

WORSHIP & MUSIC

LENTEN WORSHIP

- March 1, 8, 15, 22 and 29 (at LCGS)
- Maundy Thursday, April 6 (at St. John's)
- Good Friday, April 7 (at St. John's)

Moment of Generosity

The new piano in St. John's fellowship hall has a lovely new cover. If you look closely, you will see a cross with radiating light beams and a dove embroidered into the top of this quilted cover sewn with music-themed fabric.

This labor of love is just one of many from the generous heart of Sharon Koschak. The worship committee is most grateful and recognizes Sharon for her skill, creativity, and spirit of hospitality with which she serves this congregation! Sharon also sews our outdoor paraments (flags) as replacements are needed and embroiders baptismal cloths. She serves as a communion preparer, fellowship and event hostess, and greeter/usher.

Thank you, Sharon, for all the ways you give of yourself to this congregation and its ministries!

Holy Conversations is a time of learning and exploring together the lectionary texts for each week, sharing our own stories as we reflect on God's Story.

Come and join the discussion led by Pastor Mark, 10 a.m. Thursdays in St. John's Lounge!

The next session of Lutheranism 101 will be on Sunday, March 5 at 11:15 a.m. for confirmation students, their entire family and

ALL members of our church and friends. We will not be meeting in February.

Topics include How to Use the Bible, What the Small Catechism is, Luther: the German Monk of the 16th Century, and why any of this matters in our daily life.

CROSS+GENERATIONAL MINISTRY

WHO TOOK HOME THE GOLDEN LADLE IN 2023?

It was a tight race. We used 296 compostable cups. When it was all over, Jeanne Tuvey was the St. John’s Lutheran Church chili cookoff champion and received the Golden Ladle for 2023.

The results are as follows:

- 1st Place: Jeanne Tuvey $110
- 2nd Place: Bea Hasselmann $100
- 3rd Place: Oly Stromberg $ 55

Honorable mention goes to the following individuals (listed in no particular order): Ann Paulson, Edith Bohardt, Pastor Mark, Patrick Coveney, Rick Falcon and Shawn Northrup, and Steve Dosedall.

We had beef chili, chicken chili, vegetarian chili and vegan chili. From mild to spicy hot, it was a great day! Three of our newest members participated in the cook off. We thank all those who brought an entry.

With the money that was counted (we have more coming in) we were able to raise over $500 to help the Hasselmanns with feeding the homeless persons under the bridges.

We thank Anne Nervig and Jennifer Burdick for their excellent cornbread! The cornbread was such a hit that there is talk of a cornbread competition added to next year’s cookoff. Perhaps they can win the iron skillet?

We also give a shout out to the following for their help in ladling up chili and cleaning up: Diane Harayda, Jennifer Burdick, Matt Burdick, Anne Nervig, Steve Dosedall, Patrick Coveney, and Edith Bohardt.

We look forward to the St. John’s Chili Cookoff and Cornbread Contest 2024.

About Shrove Tuesday—

Shrove Tuesday, also known as Fat Tuesday, Mardi Gras (in French) is the big hurrah before Christians start Lent, a season of prayer, penance and fasting in preparation for the Easter season. When Pope St. Gregory prohibited Christians from eating all forms of meat and animal products during Lent around A.D. 600, Christians made pancakes to use up their supply of eggs, milk and butter in preparation for Lent. As the tradition spread throughout Europe, people in France made waffles, crepes and a dessert many know as king cake to utilize their dairy products. They called it Mardi Gras. And the English named it Pancake Day.
